

The aviation industry is a substantial contributor to this crisis.

Aircraft engines emit many atmospheric pollutants. Globally, the airline industry contributed 2.4% of total CO₂ emissions. Additionally, jet fuel poses countless risks with exposure and use.