

Building modern infrastructure for EA is complicated. There are a variety of factors to consider.

Our solution provides airports with the consultation tools necessary to determine exactly what the airport needs to adopt EA in a sustainable and scalable manner.

From traffic analysis to power demands, we will produce an easy-to-follow guide on how best to approach the problem of EA integration.